“ Good Morning Townley,

I realize that you probably will not remember me, but we had Algebra together with Miss Poulos at Towers. You even hauled me around a few times in your Dodge Charger. But I wanted you know that I will be thinking of you today and praying for you and your family. One of my favorite Bible verses through the years has been Psalm 125:1, "Those who trust in the Lord are steady as Mt. Zion, unmoved by any circumstance." My prayer for you today is that you will be able to walk through this valley today with peace in your heart, knowing that there is a God who loves you and knows what you are feeling. Take care and God bless you.##imported-begin##Steve Payne##imported-end##

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Jesus Christ promised: just as the Father raises up the dead and makes them alive, so the Son also makes those alive to whom he wants to. Do not marvel at this the hour is coming in which al those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice (Jesus) and come out. Yes millions now dead will live again on this earth, and have the prospect of remaining forever upon it under peaceful paradasaic conditions. (John 5:21,28,29, and Psalms 37:10,11,29, and 72:7,8). What a wonderful hope.##imported-begin##FH##imported-end##
