In Loving Memory of Vilma Lorraine Fareaux

Sunrise: February 14, 1947 – Sunset: July 18, 2025

With hearts full of love and gratitude for a life beautifully lived, we celebrate the legacy of Vilma Lorraine Fareaux, who passed away peacefully surrounded by the love of her family and friends.

Vilma was born in Panama City, Panama, to Ida Campbell and Gersham Carter. She was the third of six children: Sharon Carter, Salina Carter, Vilma Fareaux, Sonia Larane, Ernesto Carter, and Eduardo Carter. Growing up in Panama, Vilma discovered her love for cooking, a passion that became a thread woven throughout her life—from family meals to community gatherings. Her journey took her from Panama to Brooklyn and Staten Island, New York, and eventually to Lilburn, Georgia, where she continued to pour her heart into her family, faith, and service. Her love story began in the most unexpected of ways—through a social dating club, where Julio Fareaux picked her number out of a hat. That simple act blossomed into 63 years of marriage—a beautiful testimony of God’s grace and enduring love. “God is good!”

Together, Vilma and Julio raised three beloved children: Nicole Fareaux (September 18, 1971 – Sunset), Julio Fareaux Jr. (March 31, 1982), and Yurriel Fareaux (March 13, 1983). Her legacy continues through her cherished grandchildren, Janae Fareaux (August 20, 2000) and Desmond Fareaux. Professionally, Vilma served as an Underwriter at Kemper Insurance and later supported students and staff through her work in Gwinnett County Schools.

She was deeply devoted to her church home at Victory Church, where she joyfully served in the Victory Kids Support Team and as part of the Guest Experience Greeter Team. Though she grew up knowing Christ, it was through her involvement at Victory that she truly became a devoted disciple—living out her faith with quiet strength and radiant love.

Vilma's greatest joy was her family. She gave endlessly, loved deeply, and created a home filled with warmth, prayer, and purpose. Her smile lit up every room, and her food brought comfort to countless hearts. She will be remembered as a devoted wife, loving mother, doting grandmother, and loyal friend whose compassion left an indelible mark on all who had the privilege of knowing her.

She is deeply missed by her loving husband Julio Fareaux, her children Julio Jr. and Yuriel, grandchildren Janae and Desmond, and her siblings Sonia Larane and Ernesto Carter (wife Jean). Also grieving her loss are her dearest friend Melida Green (her godmother), Mrs. P and her daughter Shelly, Barbara Welch, and many other extended relatives and friends.

Vilma's legacy is not just in the years she lived, but in the love she gave, the strength she showed, and the lives she touched. May we honor her by loving well, serving faithfully, and living with the grace she so effortlessly displayed. "Her children rise up and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praises her." – Proverbs 31:28
