“ I didn't get to know Brother Virgil very well as I have only been the pastor of Blockhouse Baptist Church for a short time. But I do know this, he encouraged me every time he walked out the church doors. He would shake my hand and make me feel like he appreciated me being there and preaching messages. Not once did I ever hear anything come from him that wasn't what a Pastor needs to hear. He lifted my spirits, he encouraged me always. He will be missed. My prayers are for the family and friends as they mourn the lose of Brother Virgil.

God be with you all,

Mike Cook
