“ Families are made up of varying personalities and the Baggett family is blessed with their fair share. You could always count on Jenny to have one of the prettiest smiles that masked no secrets. She was loved and she loved all whom she encountered with a genuine godly spirit. Our only regret is that we had to wait until 1978 to meet this wonderful family. Recent events within the family have verified their determination to embrace all that God is willing to pour out through their unending trust in His plan. 2023 has indeed been a challenge for them but they will find a way to conquer whatever He has in store for them. Rest in peace, Jenny. We love you and will continue our prayers for your family.
