“ For a number of years, we lived 3 houses down from the Lee family and always have fond memories of them. At that time, Virginia's parents operated the store at the intersection of Pleasant Hill and Highway 29. I fondly remember Mr. Mills and Mrs. Mills and always made it a point to stop by. They lived next door to the Lee's and we also knew Agnes, her daughters and son, Sarah, her daughters and have fond memories of all the families. For a number of years, my wife, Helen, always went to Virginia for her hair appointments. We ended up selling our home where they built the Brunswick Bowling Alley and also the Lee's sold their property and moved way up in the country (it was then) where they continued to enjoy life. At one time, their daughter Sandra and her husband, Doyle lived in a little house out the little road that separated our property from the Davis sisters. Then Sharon married a young man who was, at that time, employed, I believe, as a painter for Gwinnett County schools. Despite physical problems, Virginia was always an upbeat person who obviously enjoyed life and was a faithful member of Luxomni Baptist Church. Life moves on and we lose touch of folks but it is always good to refresh our memories of those who have touched ours even those long ago.

“ Dear Jim, Sandra, Sharon and all the extended family of Virginia, How can I ever say a memory to cover a lifetime of memories. Ray and I love you all and Virginia was such a special friend. Not only did she Help me with my appearance by keeping my hair presentable all those years, but I received such an uplift each time I visited Virginia and Jim. Virginia fulfilled a mission and never realized it. What a dear friend she has been to us. Family each of you know she loved each of you so dearly. God bless you all as we bid Virginia A last farewell until we meet again on the other side! Ray and I share your grief and love each of you.
