“ For over 40 years Virginia, & I have had a Wonderful Friendship. We shared so many Sad & Happy Moments in our Lives. Our Friends Debby, Mary, Kathy, Virginia & I shared Birthday lunches over the years. No one who ever had the Joy of knowing Virginia, will ever not miss seeing that Beautiful face, & hear her kind advice. Linda, Shirley, & all of us as well as Virginias family were given a Gift when she came into our lives. Her Memory will be a Gift she has left us with.

“ I will miss you so bad of all the things I regret is that we didn't have more time together. Thru the years you have made me mad made me sad and made me proud to be your sister. I have so many good memories of all our travels with moma and junitta that I will cherish for the rest of my life. Rest in peace and know that I will see you again. I love you

Virginia you and I became friends about 18, 19 yrs ago when Samantha and Randy were dating and then became in laws when they got married. We always had a good visit and wonderful chats at all the family get Togethers at Randy and Samantha's house. I will miss you and your beautiful smile but I know you are finally at peace and have no more pain. You are now where you have wanted to be for a long time. R.I.P and I will see you again one day
