“ Miss Viv was the "across the hall" suitemate of my 93-year-old Mom, Odessa Adams, at Good Faith Personal Care Home until very recently when she needed hospice care. She was a kind-hearted, lovely lady who appreciated any little thing I did for her when I visited Mom. Despite her age and infirmity, Miss Viv was an avid solitaire player and TV viewer at the PCH, always looking forward to her times spent with family on holidays and such. Mom and I will both miss her very much, and send love to the family, who surely benefited from her TLC across the years. If the apple doesn't fall far from the tree, y'all are all fine folks!
