“ Walter. I have been truly blessed to have had you in my life. Your explaining to me and showing what could be, always inspired me. You fostered in me a love for life, in particularly sports. You took me to my first NFL game at "The Big Shea" and had me read all the articles in the paper about the game we were going to. On that day, I developed my love of gathering information, understanding that knowledge equals strength. Your compassion for others, your special love for Mary and your entire family serve as an inspiration. It warms me to know that you now rest with the lord and will be forever in my heart. P.S. When you audit the "Big Man's" books, don't be too tough on him.
