“ David was one of the good guys. I've never known a finer man. If you crossed paths with him in your walk of life, consider yourself lucky. David was a fixer- he had a good solution for any situation that came before him-engineering-construction or home projects. He was a mild-mannered gentleman and could envision things from multiple viewpoints. That talent carried over to his interaction with other people, and he could always comprehend another's opinion and where they were coming from. Even in the most challenging times, David would come forth with that contagious laugh and make the situation more tolerable. We can envision "the fixer" up there looking at those Pearly Gates thinking of a way to improve their operation. He will be greatly missed.

“ David (Dad) was a truly a mountain of an engineer and had my deepest respect but even more was a great father to us (me and Robyn) and friend to me. His advice was always welcome and well received, we deeply loved him and will forever miss him. David (Pops) was a loving, generous and playful grandfather to our kids (Sammy, Dylan, Kenzie). His laugh and spirit will never be forgotten, the kids loved him dearly.

*I love you Dad... forever...
David*
