“ We first met Walter when he played "God" and Ginger was a Private in a skit at St. Mark's Episcopal church in Mesa, AZ. That set the stage for a wonderful friendship of several years. We loved reading his "Letters to the Editor." Amy, our teenager, always said he was very cool--because he used to shop at Abercrombie and Fitch as a young man! I hope you still have access to the Internet, Walter, because I know you'll always want to know what shenanigans Congress is up to. We love you and will miss you always.##imported-begin##Ginger, John, and Amy Fleishans##imported-end##

“ I feel so lucky to have known Walt, even for such a short time and for such a sad circumstance...he was incredibly blessed to spend his days surrounded by so many loving family members and friends, and I have been blessed to have met you all. Please let Hospice of NGMC know if we can do anything to help you, and I will be in touch!

“ His life will be celebrated by those who love him for years to come. Because it is true that a person is not a part of our lives or loved by us for as long as they live, but as long as we live. Thanks for "shootin the breeze" with me Walt. Love

“ I am an employee of the Hall County Library. Mr. S and I visited often on the telephone for the correct spelling of a word, etc as he wrote his letters to the editor. Mr. Studley was an inspiration to my life. I shall always remember him with fondness! God bless you, Mr. Walt!

“ Grant, O Lord, to all who are bereaved the spirit of faith and courage, that they may have strength to meet the days to come with steadfastness and patience; not sorrowing as those without hope, but in thankful remembrance of your great goodness, and in the joyful expectation of eternal life with those they love. And this we ask in the Name of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.##imported-begin##The Rev. Timothy Joe Watts##imported-end##
