

Wanda Cuttitta

October 1, 1937 - May 9, 2014

May 9, 2014

Wanda Cuttitta, 76, of Loganville, GA, died early Friday morning, May 9, 2014, after a long illness.

Wanda was born October 1, 1937, in Teaneck, NJ to Stephen Dellaquila and Philomena Dellaquila (Carola). She attended St. Anthony's school in Garfield, N.J. and graduated from Garfield H. S.

Wanda was married May 17, 1958, to Anthony V. Cuttitta, who predeceased her. She is survived by her children Frank Cuttitta, of Stanhope, NJ, Anthony R. Cuttitta, of Phoenix, AZ, Steven Cuttitta, of Winder, GA, and Diane Stone of Lawrenceville, GA, her brother Ralph Dellaquila of NJ, and a large extended family.

Wanda worked in a variety of industries, from early computer punch cards, binding and in food service. She worked as a chef at Alena Lodge near Blairstown, NJ, from which she retired. She grew up in Fort Lee, NJ, and Garfield, NJ, and has lived in Saddle Brook, NJ, and in Hainesburg (Columbia), NJ, before moving to GA.

Wanda will be remembered for her great sense of humor and her witty stories.

A memorial service will be planned for the summer in NJ with details to follow. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Peachtree Christian Hospice of Duluth, GA.

Arrangements made by Tim Stewart Funeral Home: 300 Simonton Road, SW, Lawrenceville, GA 30046. 770-962-3100. Please sign the online guest book at www.stewartfh.com.
