To her grandchildren, she was affectionately known as “Mimi,” a title that brought her immense joy and pride. A fervent prayer warrior and steadfast believer, Wanda's love of Jesus was apparent in every aspect of her life. She was an active and faithful member of Suwanee Station Family Life Church in Suwanee, Georgia, where she encouraged others with her words and prayers. Her faith guided her every step, and her confident spirit uplifted those around her. Wanda's enthusiasm for life extended to her many passions. An avid gardener, she grew vegetables and other plants and flowers for many years. She was a voracious reader—especially of God's Word. She also enjoyed tackling word-find puzzles. Proud of her Scottish and Irish heritage, she faithfully attended the Stone Mountain Highland Games for several decades. Known for her warmth and candor, Wanda never met a stranger. She had a quick wit, a big heart, and always spoke her mind with honesty and humor. Her continued prayers strengthened lives, and her servant's heart was full of hospitality and love. I'll always remember the good times we had at the Scottish games hosting the Stewart tent, and every time that we make Rob Roy's Shortbread, we will think of Wanda. She was a wonderful person. Our prayers are with the family.
