“ Wanda was a good friend!! We live Lavonia and my wife is part of the Pilot Club that Wanda was part of. We all spent many days and nights on the lake with her, playing cards, enjoying the lake and eating good food.. Boy did she love her family so much, always talking about her husband Clayton, her kids, grandkids and great grand kids. She will be missed greatly, but I know she's having fun with Clayton and her parents. God bless her remaining family, hugs to you all. I will miss you Wanda, until we meet again!! ❤️🙏

“ Wanda was my first cousin on her mothers side (Bobby's daughter). She was always there when needed. Just talking to her could make things better.

There was only 3 years difference in our ages, growing up we did everything together.

She is with Clayton now in heaven. Her cycle of life is complete, she is happy now but those of us who are left behind will miss her dearly.

“ I never got to meet Wanda in person, but we chatted via messenger - she was my mum Jan's (from Australia) cousin - I made contact with her 31st December 2018 after finally finding her information from my mum's things (Jan died October 2002).

I shared with Wanda pictures of Jan's grandchildren, how her family was going since her passing and Wanda shared some information about Frank (Jan's father) and the rest of the family with me.

Mum was close to Wanda, she came back from her visits to USA family with many stories and especially how much her and Wanda were so alike and they developed a very close bond together. I can imagine them having a big reunion in heaven :-)

I had hoped to make a trip over there once things were safe and travel had opened up again, to meet Wanda in person, to share stories of our families, and of Jan's and Wanda's times together, and to meet the rest of the USA extended family and learn more about the history of the family too.

My heart is so sad, and goes out to you all as well, for the loss of this beautiful woman.

*love and regards to all

*Wanda was the oldest granddaughter of our Grandparents Missouri and Fred E. Cox, and was my dad's (Reece Cox) first niece. He was always so proud of her as well as all the rest of his nieces and nephew. As our oldest cousin she was always caring and sweet. We will all miss her. We are the children of her "Uncle Reece" who favored her dad (Uncle Lamar) the most! Prayers for Wendy, Michael and family!
