“ Our Condolences to Sherri, Sharon and Scott. I remember how much fun your mother was. Such a sincere sense of humor, and a quick wit to always nail the timing. She will be missed. Take Care and please stay in touch. I would love to get together and catch up with you all.

“ I am so sorry to have learned of Mrs. Wilkerson's passing. I remember that she and Bill always seemed to be "there" when we were kids, no matter where "there" was. They went to all the ballgames and events, each with a great sense of humor (Bill with maybe a little more mischief in his...). She was a terrific lady. She will be missed, and I am sorry for your loss.

“ Our most sincere sympathy for the Wilkerson family. Seeing Sherri and Sharon at Roses and remembering their subtle differences to call them by name correctly, playing ball, spending so many Sunday evenings together, watching Lance and Cody grow up all gives happy memories and a chuckle for the good times shared. Mrs. Wanda was so supportive of her family. Lots of love to you all-
