“ I will certainly miss my brother Warren. He would always tell me, “I know you longer than you know me.” And he was right, because he was the first child, and I was the second. So I’m sure he was my first friend as well as the first other little person I knew. We shared our bouts of sibling rivalry, mostly with me being the victim, but I survived. There were some advantages to having an older brother, especially from preteen to younger teenage years. I never had to buy records, as I could always sneak and listen to his. And if I wanted to check out boys, they were always on hand as Warren had lots of buddies. I learned the latest dances as I watched from the sidelines when he and his friends got together. I guess you can say he gave me a first hand look into what it meant to be a teenager. I am very thankful that through all our ups and downs, we continued to share a brotherly and sisterly love that endured to the end. I will miss him very much, but know one day I will see him on the other side. Rest in peace, my dear brother. I’ll always love you. Love from your sister, Rosalind.

To Rosalind, Carole & Brenda, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. We all go way back and if you remember, we played Dominos together which Warren taught me. May you all be comforted as he Sleeps in Peace...Weeping may endure for a night but JOY comes in the morning. You have my condolences! 🙏 Carol Richardson “ Rest in peace daddy! I miss you so much and it is hard to accept that you are gone! I love you with all if my heart and cherish all of our memories and time spent together, especially over these last few months. I will miss hearing you greet me as your "Baby Doll". Oh how that made my heart melt. Although my heart is broken, I hold on to the fact that you are no longer suffering. I love you forever and ever.. Your daughter Christine.
