“ So many thoughts, memories going thru my mind and heart. My dear brother...you lived life on your terms and to the end proved that no one could ever count you out. I know that you are at peace and pain free but what an empty space this world has now. I'll think of you often, miss hearing what mischeif you have gotten in to and smile when i think of so many moments. Thank you for teaching Jamey to ride a bike, for accepting everyone for who they were and for just being you. Tell those we love who went before you hello and until i see you again rest in peace. Love you
