“ You Walk Beside me Every Day.

*The days are long without you here, I've sat and cried a thousand tears, that cruel fate did my life destroy and take away my lovely boy.
But you can wipe my tears away, you walk beside me every day.*

*The looming years that, more or less, just fill me with unhappiness, are speckled with some happy times, when rainbows brighten up the skies.
I know you're never far away, you walk beside me every day.*

*There will be anniversaries and celebrations that you'll miss, Oh, Adam, how we'll miss you then, your booming laugh, your cheeky grin.
But you'll be there, you'll find a way, you walk beside us every day.*

*Sometimes I dream that I'm awake and find it's all a big mistake,
That you are here, you're safe and well! with hugs and smiles and tales to tell!
And in my mind I hear you say, "I walk beside you, every day."*

*The road ahead is hard and steep, with hills to climb and furrows deep,
and life will never be as good as when you, here beside us, stood.
But we believe that here you stay, you walk beside us every day.*

*At night you gently touch my cheek and memories are mine to keep, of my sweet son, so deeply missed, since that first day your head I kissed.
Inside my heart forever stay and walk beside every day.*

Poem by Tracy Lamont

I cannot begin to understand what you are going through and words cannot express the deep sympathy I have for the family. I hope that with all of the love that your friends and family have for you that all of you are able to be conformed. I will keep the family in my prayers.##imported-begin##John Whiting##imported-end##

“ Many children are precious, but sometimes a child just stands out from the others....and Carter did. The last thing he did at Sylvan was give his remaining "tokens" to a little boy that came the same time he did. He had a teacher write me a note... instead of Carter buying something with the tokens, he wanted the other boy to... His obituary is right on - this child was a rare soul, having a heart possibly too big for this world. He left a feeling in me of goodness.... and I will miss him greatly ~##imported-begin##Cory Jenkins##imported-end##

“ We only met Carter for the 1st time last year, when you all welcomed us into your home, when we came over from the UK. With that one visit he created a lasting impression with us . Carter was a child that loved and lived life to the full and had a smile for everyone. We enjoyed his company and his quick wit and conversations. We send our thoughts and prayers to Greg, Amy, Amanda and Savanna. He will always be in yours hearts and minds and everyone else that ever met him, he will never be forgotten.

“ Greg, Amy, & family,
We don't know you personally but we have known Miss Dot for many years. We met Carter last year when he was with Dot at a Daylily Society meeting. Carter was such a sweet, handsome, and well-behaved boy and we enjoyed the afternoon we had with him. Please know that we, and our church family, are praying for your family. May the Lord give each of you comfort as you go through this difficult time.

“ Amy, Greg, Amanda, Savanna and Dot,
I cannot imagine the pain that you all are going through. Every time I think of Carter, I see his huge smile and laughing eyes. You all are right, he was such a warm and loving person and we will all miss his practical jokes and laughing ways. I, too, believe that he is in heaven with the rest of our family and that they are all having such a good time. I know that rougher times are ahead, but ALWAYS remember the good times that we have all had with Carter. I Love You All, “ Carter was such a loving and bright child with a warm heart and beautiful smile. We were thankful to know him and to have him as our grandson's (Asa Murray) friend. He will be missed by all of those that knew and loved him, but thanks be unto the Lord that we know that he is safe and at home with the Lord today. God bless and be with the Hendrix family. Our deepest heartfelt prayers and condolences go out to all of his loved ones during this most difficult time.
