“ Lee and i met on match.Com a year ago. After we became a couple we would laugh about that we were a 110% perfect match. That was our thing in this relationship. To reminisce about how perfect we were for each other. We talked for hours and hours. He told me I knew more than anyone has ever known about him. He made me feel good about myself and the thing he loved most was that he could finally fall in love with someone that wouldn't use him nor ask for anything in return except his love. I loved him for who he was on the inside. His heart and his sole. We had just started planning a vacation for early 2016 for a week with noone but us. I know it would have been special and that we probably would have been married this new year. So now I'm left with memories that will last forever and hurt that will never leave my heart. He was so full of life and love and just needed someone simple. We enjoyed doing everything together. I m going to miss you Sweetheart more than you could possibly imagine. You were my best friend and my partner for life. I'm not sure how to move forward without you but I know I'm suppose to. I just don't see that happening. Love u always and forever
