“ When I prayed for GOD to heal Wayne from this terrible disease all this time....I didn't think he was answering my prayers because I didn't see him physically healed...What I have learned is that GOD while not healing Wayne's body..He was healing his heart. GOD was healing is heart before he sent his angels down to take it home..As I looked over Wayne today and kissed his forehead for the ten hundredth time...a very peaceful feeling come over me...it occurred to me .. GOD WAS answering mine and everyone's prayers..in HIS on time and in HIS own way.. Heaven is make of only perfect hearts ... and now it includes Wayne's.

The next few days will not be easy as I am faced with viewing his old body and meeting friends and family at the funeral home but I know he will be looking down on us as one of GOD's angles.. :>) I say to my brother, not good-bye but so long...Until we meet again. “ In the sad times of life, it's part of God's plan for friends to help friends any way that they can. May you find strength in your faith, comfort in God's love, and peace in knowing your friends are praying for you.
