“ I didn't know Wayne, but I have worked with Angie for several years. Angie spoke very highly of her father, he sounded like a wonderful, genuine, loving man that anyone would be proud to call a family member and dad. Sending you all warm thoughts and prayers for peace in your hearts as you navigate the days ahead.

Wayne had a huge servant heart, he lived the Word by "caring for His sheep." Often these folks were the marginalized in the community. No doubt he was greeted with those beautiful words: Well done, My good and faithful servant. Prayers for the family.

“ Pam, Ridley and I have special memories of you two in the W. Y. Smith Sunday School Class...can just “ picture y’all” and where you always sat! But sorry we did not get to know you better....after reading all about Wayne, what an amazing person he was .. all of his accomplishments are so impressive! I know you are so proud of him and that you two shared an awesome marriage! Our deepest sympathy. Carole & Ridley
