“ Peggy, Ashley and Sara, I thought I knew what I wanted to say but words escape me now. So many years of being next door neighbors. So many years of being kids together. I am praying for comfort for your heart and healing. Don't let your heartbreak ruin your many good memories from the years. We don't understand why the very good have to go so early. After Weldon retired and you were still working, I remember him opening up the lawn chair and setting it so he could watch for you coming home each afternoon. Well he is now watching and waiting for you in a different place where there will be no separation. Oh what a Saviour we serve, leave it to him and things will be as planned.
