“ I worked with Mr. Wendell at Britt Elementary. This really breaks my heart because I got very close to him. I was calling and came to visit him like I always did since 2012, in December I noticed the house didn't look the same. I relocated to Miami,FL to care for my dad whose name is Wendell also. So he was like a dad to me. You won't believe my name is Wendell also. You can email me at wendell1168@yahoo.com. Am going to miss him a great deal as I am just finding out today of his passing, through searching obituaries.

Miss you McCart.

“ Another memory I hold of Mr. Wendell from Britt Elementary is, how on my many late working days, when I'd be one of the last teachers, or the last teacher to leave the building, Wendell would watch me walk to my car, get in, and drive off just to make sure I left the grounds safely. He was a true gentleman.

“ I worked with Wendell for many years at Britt Elementary. He always had a smile on his face and his actions conveyed warmth and love for staff and children. He was always willing to help me anyway he could. Wendell was a true gentleman down to his soul and I enjoyed his kindhearted personality and sense of humor. He’d remind me each day as we made it to “hump day” on Wednesdays and then again when we made it to “Friday Eve.” He lived for the weekends, just like the teachers! I frequently gave silent hand signals to my students as my class made routine walks down the hall periodically throughout the day. Wendell picked up on the silent hand signals and when he’d approach us, he started giving silent hand signals, too, in a humorous way that made us all smile. I truly enjoyed working with Mr. Wendell and I hope the wonderful memories you hold will bring a smile to your heart during this sad time.

“ God blessed me with being a part of the Frank Wilson family living on Red Eye Hill in Snellville, GA. We were a close-knit family for many years. If one hurt, we all hurt. Wendell was blessed to be a part of the same family. He was a true southern gentleman, kind, gracious, soft-spoken, giving, honorable and spiritual. I will miss him being in this world with me but I know he's dancing a jig on those streets of gold.
