“Aww, sweet, beautiful Wendy. I was stunned to read this sad news. I met Wendy in the mid 70's and was immediately captivated by her spirit, loveliness, and sophistication. To this day, I remember her flawless makeup, (and I think we all know Wendy did love her some makeup, especially mascara) long painted nails, and blond wispy hair. In my eyes, she was the total package of a young woman finding her way in the 70's. Many days and nights were spent at her parents home on Lake Lanier. Wendy was a beautiful water skier, and so patient with those of us who were not. 😊 She introduced us to a fancy Italian Restaurant in Atlanta and was mortified when we all ordered the exact same thing. Fondue was a favorite of hers. We thought we had come a long way knowing what to do with beef and peanut oil when she brought out cheese and chocolate! Wendy kept us on our toes. My most precious time with Wendy was in June of 1978. Wendy had taken a nursing position at a boys (she was no fool!) camp in Maine and asked if I would share the drive. Wow, I could not have been more excited. So off we went, me, Wendy, a white Ford Granada, Barbra Streisand, Jane Oliver, John Denver, and Barry Manilow. It was a trip that will forever be stored deep within my soul.

Courtney, God bless you. I hope I get to meet you one day. I would love to meet the daughter of a person who meant and gave so much to me.

Wendy always closed her letters with Proverbs 17:17, “a friend loveth at all times.” My friendship with Wendy will last me forever.

Sleep well my friend. ❤️

“ I am so sorry to hear this news. I met Wendy while we were both attending Gainesville College. We became good friends and had many adventures. One of my favorite memories is water skiing and boating on Lake Lanier. She was a beautiful friend. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.
