“ I can clealry hear your voice in my head. I miss you so much. I want to know that you are happy and at peace. I remember the first time you met Dan and you hugged on him constantly. I remember when you were always goofing with Gary and Cory. I remember when Rachel was born and you were so jealous of the attention she was getting that you started hiding her things. I remember when you loved swinging Rachel in a blanket and singing "banana, banana, 1-2-3". You were always such a goof ball and that was the best thing about you. Remember when we went to buy you earrings and you saw a little blood on your finger and fainted on the floor right in the store. You were so embarrassed. You were always ready for anything. I did not have enough time to catch up. I am so sorry for the years I missed. I will forever miss you. I have always loved you. I will forever be your "big sis, Cin". I will do my best to never disappoint you again. I love you, Wen !###imported-begin##Cindy Allard Gaffin ##imported-end##

“ Wendy was my childhood best friend. I remember meeting Wendy and Cory playing with a ball in front of their house. They had just moved in the neighborhood and lived in our culdesac . I was just in the 3rd grade . We became best friends and shared many great memories from elementary, middle, and high school. We lost touch a few times after college but managed to reconnect over these last couple of years. I'll always remember the walks, bike rides, the trick or treating around the neighborhood, the many sleepovers, the bus stop, and the annual state fair. She was the sister that I never had and has left an impression in my life forever. I will miss her dearly. Sending prayers, peace, and comfort to her Family & Friends.##imported-begin##Nerlene Lacsamana Cote'##imported-end##

“ My favorite memory of Wendy was the first time we met. My daughter & I drove up on a Saturday to join the boy scouts at their Fall 2011 camping trip. As soon as we arrived in camp, we spotted LeAnn. I was LeAnn's room parent for 3rd grade and she always greeted me with a hug. LeAnn invited us on a walk to the lake to look for shells. Wendy gave me a bottle of water and gathered a group of girls for our quest for shells. When we reached the lake, Wendy thought it would be fun for girls to walk in the muddy bank along side the river. The girls happily took off their shoes and socks and walked right in. They all laughed and said the mud felt great. Then Wendy told them that people actually pay good money for mud treatments. The girls kept telling each other, "We're having a spa day... and it's Free!" We collected shells, talked to some boys fishing, then headed back to camp. On the trail, Wendy told the girls all about bugs, earth, woodland plants, and how to look for moss on the sides of trees to determine which way is north. That's when I learned Wendy was a Science teacher, a Girl Scout leader, and an all-around remarkable lady who devoted much of her time to helping others. We will truly miss you Wendy and your care-free spirit!###imported-begin###Nicole Winters (a girl scout & boy scout mom)###imported-end###

“ I first met Ms. Wendy at my brother and Caleb's boy scout camping trip in 2011. She knew all about nature and I could tell she loved camping. My favorite memory of Ms. Wendy was when she showed LeAnn and me how to make a pineapple upside down cake. We baked it in a home made box covered in aluminum foil - right there in the woods. It was delicious! She also made us hot chocolate with mountains of whip cream. That was the night when LeAnn asked me if I wanted to join their Girl Scout troop. Ms. Wendy was a very fun, intelligent, and creative leader. I will miss her dearly. I love you LeAnn & Ms. Wendy!##imported-begin##Emily Winters (Girl Scout)##imported-end##

“ Gone too soon...I remember when we moved in, Wendy was quick to welcome us and have us over for the 4th with other neighbors; we were so touched and grateful. We both liked to play games with the kids but the best was when we had a Mom Dance Off with the Wii. Aston will always cherish the time we trick or treated together and when the younger guys got tired, Wendy offered to take the older guys to every house in the neighborhood! He couldn't walk the next day but had the best candy haul ever...thanks Wendy for making that happen! Your smile will be missed around here.##imported-begin##Dawn Roth (neighbor)##imported-end##

“ I knew Wendy well in middle and high school. We lived in the same neighborhood growing up in Pensacola. She was a great friend not only to me, but to our entire group from the neighborhood.

Recently, we reconnected on FB the last 2-3 years, and had occasional conversations about things that would help her Science class.

My thoughts and prayers go out to Wendy's family in this tough time.##imported-begin##Brian Anderson##imported-end##

“ I grew up with Wendy in the same neighborhood in Pensacola, and we went to middle school and high school together. I remember as a kid always seeing that blond hair and knew who it was instantly. She was always full of energy. Of Wendy I can say that she was a beautiful, kind and very special woman. She was such a loving Mom, doing anything for her kids and was so selfless, so willing to help and put others before herself. And she loved to have fun doing anything she set her mind to. She made everything fun to do. From tubing down the Chattahoochee River to picking apples. From grocery shopping to lounging on the couch. The most ordinary task was not ordinary when done with Wendy. I was with her for only a short time, but it felt like a lifetime. I miss spending time with her, holding her tight in my arms, caressing her face and running my hands through her hair. I miss looking into those beautiful eyes and seeing that wonderful smile. She thought it was funny and cute that I called her my "addiction". I couldn't wait to see her again on the weekends and during holidays, as she was constantly on my mind and I could think of nothing else but wanting to spend my free time with her. And I looked forward to her phone calls, text messages and Skype conversations when we couldn't spend time together physically. Thank you God for the time that You gave Wendy and I together, she will always be in my heart and I was very blessed to have her in my life. I miss you so much my Beautiful, Sweet and Incredible Sweetheart.##imported-begin##Jeff Taylor##imported-end##

Wendy's smile will definitely be missed at Hull.##imported-begin##Linda Kitchens##imported-end##

“ I am among the many teachers who had the privilege of working alongside Wendy at Hull Middle School. When Wendy and I first met I was teaching language arts/social studies and she was one of our wonderful sixth grade science teachers. Just two years later, I was moved to sixth grade science and suddenly found myself out of my comfort zone and a bit apprehensive. Wendy knew I was nervous and on the first day of school she showed up at my classroom door with a 3 inch binder full of science lessons. Her words to me were calm, but matter of fact "Don't worry, Tam. You've got this!". And that was Wendy. She had such a kind, loving, and caring nature. She enjoyed helping others and always seemed to be there whenever someone needed her. Her students loved her and we all did too.

What I will remember best about Wendy is the love she had for her children. Danielle, Leann, and Caleb, please know that your mother loved you dearly. She talked about each of you all the time and always fondly. You meant the world to her. We will all miss her so much.##imported-begin##Tammy Harry##imported-end##

“ Wendy was Hull's yearbook sponsor for several years. She loved creating the book each year wanting the students to have an amazing collection of memories. I was fortunate to get sneak peaks of the cover design and theme each year. She also asked me to create some of the pages along the way. With her encouragement, I took on the responsibility this year. Without her guidance and assistance I would never made my deadlines. Her enthusiasm and excitement for the yearbook is contagious. Thank you Wendy! I will miss you.##imported-begin##Pat Bowden##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Hiers has placed a blessing in each and every one of her students at Hull Middle school. “ I was married to Wendy for 3 1/2 years. She gave me life's precious gift... My daughter Danielle. I remember the days when Danielle was a baby and I would come home from work. I would get on my hands and knees and chance Danielle on the floor. Wendy always said "Daddy's going to get you" and Danielle would go running up to Wendy smiling. Danielle would go to Wendy because she knew Wendy was there to protect her. Wendy was a GREAT MOM!! I know her and I have had our differences, but she did a great job raising Danielle, and I Thank Her for that. ##imported-begin##Clinton deArmas##imported-end##

“ I remember when I first started to substitute at Hull MS four years ago. I had a long term sub position in 6th grade science and Wendy would come in my classroom quite frequently to make sure I was OK. She always came armed with activities or lesson ideas to help me. I could tell she was a passionate teacher and that she loved her job. I appreciated how she made time to check on me.

The last time I saw Wendy was at the end of the school year last year. Since she was already done with her end of school duties, she helped her friend and co-worker move into her new classroom. She was cleaning, organizing, moving furniture and smiling the whole time. I will miss her and I know the Hull Family will miss her dearly. My prayers go out to her family, colleagues, friends and students.##imported-begin##Lori Curl##imported-end##

“ There was nobody like Wendy. We were on the same team for my first three years at Hull Middle School. Our classrooms were side by side for the first two years, and, being the considerate person she was, she frequently apologized for being too noisy. I never understood why she kept apologizing and told her so because there was no way I could hear what was going on on her side of the wall over the volume at which learning occurred on my side :).

I also never understood how Wendy was able to do all that she did! She was a consummate mother to her three children (miss you guys, Danielle, Leann, and Caleb), an admirable teacher, a dedicated troop leader, a tireless yearbook coordinator, and a compassionate teammate.

May God's peace that passes all understanding comfort all of Wendy's family members, friends, church family, coworkers, and students as we go through this difficult time together.##imported-begin##Carla Spence ##imported-end##

“ So very saddened by this news. Wendy was a fellow 'Football Mom' at Collins Hill with our little Eagles. She was such a giver of her time, talents, anything that was needed. Of course, she was Caleb's biggest cheerleader! I can't ever recall seeing her doing anything that didn't involve her children or her students. “ Wendy, being only eight years apart, it was always funny calling you "Aunt," because there were so many times (like the year we shared a bedroom when you were 17 and I was 9) that you felt more like a sister. I will forever cherish those times. I delighted in pretending to sleep so I could really eavesdrop on your calls with your teenage friends, feeling like I was such a hotshot to be privy to such conversations. I adored you. I still adore you. All I wanted to be when I grew up was you. I miss you so desperately. And I am so sorry for those times I was so stupid and didn't make you a priority in my life. I wish I could turn back time and make it different. Though I am missing you horribly, I anticipate our reunion on that beautiful golden street in the clouds. “ Ms. Hiers was the best teacher I have ever had. When I found out about her death, I just couldn't believe. She was a very, kind caring person. I remember I did very well in her science class in 6th grade. Last year when she moved to 7th grade science, I wanted to be in it so badly, and she wanted me to be in her class as bad as me. I remember coming out of the counselor room after asking for a schedule change, and I walked out with the counselor, and the counselor said, " There goes your favorite teacher!" Then Ms. Hiers stopped. I ran up to her then she asked me, " Did you change classes?" I said no, and she was upset. Although, it didn't stop me from visiting her atleast once a week. She invited me to fun projects that her classes had. One, I watched a movie, the second I colored in this apron with the organs of the body. Oh, I had great memories with Ms. Hiers. I'm glad I had Ms. Hiers for 6th grade and was still able to see her almost everyday in 7th. She was a very good teacher and was very dedicated to her work. I will keep her family in my prayers. Girl Scouts and Hull Middle School will never be the same with out her. She was such a wonderful person and so many people loved and cared about her. We had such great fun teaching and learning together. Wendy was not only my teammate but my friend. Our kids played together after school for years. We met outside of work and would talk while the kids played. Wendy was so caring, she even would babysit my daughter so I could go to an evening class. What a loving and dedicated friend. “ I can't believe Mrs.Hiers is gone. I miss her so much. She was my favorite teacher. I'm in her 7th period and i can say it will NEVER be the same. When we found out on Tuesday, my friends Allena,Caitlin, and i started crying. I remember that she wanted me to move to her accelerated class period and i said no. The next day, i asked if i could change my answer and she said she was glad i had. She also asked me why i had said no in the first place. i said because i didn't think i was smart enough to be in accelerated science. She started laughing and said,"Andrea, if you weren't smart enough i wouldn't have offered to put you in it!" A few weeks later we were taking the Semester Final Exam and i got a 96. She and my other two teammates came to visit me in the hospital when I had hip replacement surgery-both times! We grew up in the same neighborhood in Pensacola, Florida and some of my fondest memories growing up involve her family. Although there is no real explanation, time and distance took its toll on our relationships. I talked with Wendy over the internet a few occassions and was not surprised to learn she chose to be teacher. I hope all that knew her realized what myself, Cory, Gary, and Marion knew very early. “ It is so hard to even start this post because Wendy was loved by us on so many levels! I loved her as a mom, as a teacher and as an incredible Scout leader to my daughter. I met Wendy thru scouts, and came to be her friend over the many different scout activities we did together from meetings, to camping, to cookie booths, the list goes on. She loved her Girl Scouts as if she were their mom and taught each of them about being a strong and self sufficient young ladies! She has led our girls since they were in Kindergarten. As a teacher, I would call her when I needed ideas for my 5th graders and Wendy was right there with ideas, plans and everything I might need to make it happen. She was so willing to go out of her way to help anyone that might need it! I am honored and feel priveleged to have gotten to call Wendy a dear friend. I, too know that she loved each of her children intensely and always wanted the very best for them! My prayers are with Danielle, Leann, and Caleb that they will remember all the wonderful things their mother did for them and with them and carry that with them in their hearts. Her smile and laugh are both a treasured memory that will help each of us get through this very hard time. Prayers to each family member for healing and comfort at this increibly tough time! “ I always would joke with Wendy about football. Man was she a Florida fan. I'd tell her that orange and blue don't match and that the Gators might have a chance at beating UGA if they could just post bail. I also had a chance to work with her regarding a homeless student. Man did that kid need some help and I was assigned to give it to him. I emailed Wendy about it and that very day she showed up with a folder full of stuff and assignments for him to do. She said teach him like this but not like that and she was correct because she was not just a teacher, she was a relationship builder. “ Wendy, you will be missed! I remember when you moved to 7th grade science from 6th grade science. You had all these wonderful and fun activities that you wanted to try. Everytime you did something exciting you asked me if I wanted it for my class. I will never forget that. I remember us talking about Girl Scouts and I reminiscing about my younger years as a girl scout and my mother being the leader of the troupe. To the family, my prayers and thoughts are with you during this time.##imported-begin##Dionne Byrd##imported-end##

“ Danielle, Leann "Guido", and Caleb,
Your mother was a wonderful friend, coworker, and mother. I called her Super Woman because she did so much for so many. Nothing was more important to her than her three children. Never doubt the love that she had for you 3. Each of you were so special and she loved to brag on you and your wonderful qualities. Wendy was a wonderful teammate who was always ready to do whatever needed to be done. I firmly believe that she will always be looking over you and encouraging you to make good decisions as you grow into adulthood. Wendy, Danielle, Leann, and Caleb will always hold a special place in my heart.

“ Wendy was both friend and coworker. A most GIVING person, never did a day pass where she was not helping someone, somewhere- whether by sharing lesson plans and materials with other teachers, or collaborating to help students be successful. Several times a year, Wendy would send out an email to ask for random household discards- coffee cans, egg cartons, paper towel rolls- all to help with her children and their friends in Girl Scouts. Wendy did NOTHING half-way. She put her whole heart into everything she was involved in- being a great Mom to her beautiful and loving children, being an inspiring and strong teacher, building the school yearbook, leading girl scouts for many years, mentoring fellow teachers, and being a friend. She had tremendous energy- that came from her very big and generous heart. I have been hearing stories of teachers who are pulling out lesson plans that she gave to them- some with sticky notes attached that honestly evaluated the learning activity- good or bad! When I started my photography business, Wendy was the first person to ask for family portraits. She INSISTED on paying me because she wanted to value me and my work. Always giving, always caring, Wendy leaves a deep and loving impression on the hearts of hundreds of people. The world is a better place because of Wendy Allard Heirs. God Bless her, her family and her LEGACY.##imported-begin##Kari Salomon##imported-end##

“ I first met Wendy when I moved from Destin to Pensacola. It was our 10th grade year and I was terrified of going to a new high school. Wendy helped me find my way around and made the whole experience a lot less scary. I will always remember her kindness and how helping was just who she was.###imported-begin###Mary Moses Powell###imported-end##

“ I meet Wendy three years ago at Hull Middle School. Her classroom was across the hall from mine. It was not unusual to see her coming across to my classroom or me going across to hers. During planning we would sit and talk with each. Wendy was my go to person for activities in my lessons. Wendy girl, I will miss you so much!! Thanks for being my friend.##imported-begin##Gwendolyn Henry (co-worker)##imported-end##

“ I remember fondly when I had my first daughter and Wendy came to visit me in the hospital. She said something that gave us both the belly giggles. It hurt so bad... but I couldn't stop! I had to ask her to leave! I love you, Wendy, and am privileged to have you as my sister. I will miss you more than words could ever, ever, ever express!##imported-begin##Linda Malamo (sister)##imported-end##
