“ I will always remember the times that I would go to granny & papa Duncan's house. I couldn't wait to go down to uncle Wesley & aunt Dot's to play in the playhouse they had for their granddaughters. We would all be out there playing and here would come uncle Wesley and he would knock on the door like he just stopped by to visit us. He'd come in and sit and pretend to be having a party with us. I mean this playhouse you could actually sit in as an adult. I just thought that was the best time. I have this picture in my head of seeing him in his hunting gear a lot. I always remember seeing him in brown clothing and a brown cap. RIP Uncle Wesley.
