“ I will always hold dear the precious memories of the short time we shared. When I'm in the kitchen, watching football or Jane, whether I'm at the beach or in a tree stand I know a piece of you will be there. I can't believe I'm saying goodbye, a part of me thought of you as invincible. Always said you'd outlive us all. As you go onto your finale home I want you to know I love you and will miss you. Good bye to the best father-in-law a girl could have.

“ Poppy, I helped take care of you the last year of your life and I will take that experience through the rest of mine. I would be lying if I said you didn't enlighten my life even in the most simplest of ways. At times we got frustrated and annoyed with each other, but with all family feuds, love was still embedded there. We are sad with your absence but find strength and peace in knowing that you finally get to rest, and I feel, especially towards the end of your life, that's all you really wanted. Whenever the falcons play and score a touchdown or get an interception and feel the urge to yell in excitement, I know that urge will be from you, whenever the dogs lay with me in bed and I smile from their company, I will know how you felt in their company as well. Rest well old man. Love you poppy.

“ Dad words can't express how much I love you and miss you. I can take comfort in knowing that you are no longer suffering or in pain I know you are in the presence of our Lord and you are finally at peace. I will always cherish the memories of us fishing, hunting, or traveling to the races. May you Rest in Peace. Love willy

“ I've got many memories of Uncle Bill. He was one of the loudest cheering I could hear as I walked by my family going to the stage to get my diploma at graduation. I've got fuzzy memories of him with us when we all went fishing. I'm not sure that he went with my parents, Grandpa & my 2 other uncles (Burt & Tommy). Rip Uncle Bill. I know you are with Aunt Mary now & you are no longer in any pain. You both have new pain free bodies. Love you.

“ Bill, my very cool brother in law. He was my bro.....loved to call him by his birth name, Wilbur Gene.....which, he hatedAlways made such a fuss, was so much laughter over it. Mary (his wife) loved to tease him over his name, he was so cute. He loved his dogs for sure, talked about them all the time. His real pride and joy where his grandchildren and Great grandson. We talked on the phone with me many times over the years, repeating how proud he was of them. Don't get me wrong, he loved his children lots, just was able to spend more quality time with the grandchildren... which with the highlight of his life. I love and will miss you Bill. May you enjoy Mary and so many others once again.

“ Poppy was not in my life for very long, but I enjoyed the time that he was. He would always make you smile, laugh, and listen to our stories. And oh Jesus him and the dogs. They were his babies, always guarding him. Poppy you will be missed. Love you always!!! Rest in peace now, you have nana at your side once again.

“ RIP Daddy, God took away your pain and suffering and took you to a better place. I find strength in this, and knowing you are in comfort with our Lord. Thank you for the many laughs we shared, your sense of humor was priceless. I never had a doubt how much I was loved by you. I am so glad your final days were with me, they made me stronger. Go rest high on that mountain Daddy ❤️

*Go rest high on that mountain
Son your work on earth is done
Go to Heaven a shoutin'
Love for the Father and the Son*
