“ My memories of you are centered mainly around the annual Halloween party, so they are all happy. Scenes of you "supervising" the decorating, working your tail off to finish the sets, all of us laughing hysterically when you first put on "tassel tessie", you and Ada on the dance floor. I will miss hearing about the latest Wiley-isms from Kim. Mostly I remember your teasing, your smile, and the twinkle in your eye.###imported-begin##Vickie Brady###imported-end##

“ Didn't actually know you personally, but in working with Kim for over 19 years, I have heard all the great stories, seen the pictures and maybe even a video or too (so you can't deny it)...we should all be so lucky to live life to the fullest like you did and to be loved the way you are loved. For some reason I feel like you will still be making people laugh and smile down here....what a fortunate family!. Take care, Sharon##imported-begin##Sharon Drake##imported-end##

“ We are very sad to hear of Uncle Wiley's passing. I always remember him smiling. He was always friendly and laid-back. I remember years ago when he and my dad Charles would get up in the middle of the night and report as security guards. Being young, I thought they wore military uniforms! Aunt Lulu says she's sorry also. She remembers when Wiley hit his ankle w/ a bowling ball up in Delaware. And who can ever forget the "Wiley Wheel"? I pray the Lord Jesus Christ welcomes him with arms wide open. Love, Henry (nephew).##imported-begin##Henry & Hope Thompson##imported-end##

“ Gator,

Although I have only known you for six years, that time has meant alot to me. You have always been there for Kimmy and Krista and your helping hand and love has always included me as a member of your extended family. I will miss you dearly as I know everyone who's lives you touched misses you already.

I will miss passing you on my way to work in the morning's when your doing 30 mph in a 45 mph zone. I can almost hear you hum "Laa Dee" as you drive down the road and knowing that you didn't care who honked at you for going so slow because you would always wave at them and smile.

I'll miss the goofy names you always gave new people when you met them for the first time. When you met my son for the first time he was introduced to you by his name Jacob and you nic-named him Jason right away.

Jake would always answer you because in that quick moment he liked you and thought you were crazy.

I drank a cold one for you today ole man. It was tuff going down because it was not shared with you, sitting in your shop getting covered up in saw dust.

My thoughts and prayers to Ada, Tina, Kimberly, Wiley Jr., Krista and the family that loves you.

Missing you Already,

“ Ada, We are sending our love and prayers to you, Kimmie, Tina, & Junior. Since growing up with Wiley and him living down the road from him it has been great knowing him and his good sense of humor. He made us laugh over and over, we are blessed with the good times, especially the ones we had in Key West and at your lake house and the good times we spent this past year, all the fun we had the night we spent in Chattanoga outside the front of the motel, we will remember us pulling up and there the two of you sitting with the table out front with your chairs from inside and you, Wiley, Danny & Shelia, Harry & I sitting out there talking about the good old times, than going on to Dottie & Jims the next day for Jims birthday get together what a good time we had, we will always have the memories. We especially enjoyed the good time we had when Danny, Sheila, Harry & I came back through from the keys and stopped at the lake house and going up to Ernest's place at the top of the hill from you, what a good time we had, I don't think we ever laughed so much, this is what we have to remember of Wiley, good friend and good times. We love you and we loved Wiley Take care Love Shirley & Harry##imported-begin##Shirley & Harry Horton##imported-end##

“ Wiley Brown will be missed by many and my life was enriched by knowing him. I have always admired what he accomplished in life. He was such a hard worker and could work miracles with his hands and a saw. So many people learned great skills and life lessons from him. Wiley Brown never met a stranger and had a heart of gold. Wiley will never be forgotten, but now, he will be his family's guardian angel to watch over them. He so loved his family. Wiley was loved by all that knew him and we will all cherish our memories of him. With him in heaven, I know he will continue to make our passed loved ones laugh with his humor and dance liked he loved to do.##imported-begin##Patsy Gardner##imported-end##

“ Wiley Brown, I have known you since I was 16 years old. My how time flies! My fondest memory of you was when you, Ada, Tina, and Kimmy lived next to David and I in the Duplex in Decatur. We brought Angie home from the hospital. She loved Uncle Wiley. Sometimes she wouldn't sleep and you would come over and hold her, bounce her in your arms and say "Boom boom boom", over and over. She would drift off to sleep when nothing else would work. I remember Ada worked but I didn't. You and David would sneak home from work to get fishing poles and off you would go. I didn't even have a clue you had been there. I also remember how great you were at horseshoes. Man, put a ringer on almost everytime! You have been a blessed man with a wonderful wife and three great children. God bless to Ada and the kids. I love you all! You have my deepest sympathy.
