“ we have very fond memories of Dot & Delane. Several years ago we used to come to Atlanta to the Furniture Market and we stayed with them when they lived in Decatur. We always went to a good barbecue place there. He was a big cut up my boys called him "funny man" One year Clete came to Cookeville to visit and we have 3 boys and they had motor cycles. Clete wanted to ride and they let him and he rode over a hill - thru a fence and into the pasture field. No serious injuries. From all of your cousins here in Cookeville we extend our deepest sympathy to Debbie and her family. Love you guys Jim & Toot

Mr. Bill I have had the pleasure to be your friend for the past 15 years. I always enjoyed our talks. You were so knowledgeable about your favorite sport baseball. You were always so positive and we had the pleasure of friendship. In our last conversation you said you were excited to start your new chapter with the love of your life. Enjoy every moment with your wife and catch a big fish for me. You will always be remembered!!
