“ During my teens and early adult years , Mr Carter would sometimes go out of his way to help me with auto parts and even towing some of my old broken down cars home. He was always kind and thoughtful. He is and will be one of my more pleasant memory's I had as a young man growing up.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with the Family. As I child, I would walk down our back pasture to Mr. Carter' s store to buy candy. My Papa (Eugene Hopper) always spoke very well of Mr. Billy. He had a great respect for him. He was such a hard working and faithful Man. That is how I knew Mr. Carter was a Good Man. He will surely be missed. Rest in peace Sir, You've earned it.
