“ Forty years or so ago, around when Mike moved to Georgia from the Chicago area, another friend and I were visiting. Mike took us to the then new Atlanta Underground. It was Christmas time, and hanging from the ceiling of the parking garage were thousands of paper snowflakes.

"That one is upside down," Mike deadpanned in his inimitable baritone.

We stopped and did a double take. It was the perfect Mike joke because of course spotting an upside down flake was absurd, but if anyone might have spotted it, Mike was your man.
