“ I had the privilege of knowing Roger through his daughter and my dear friend Jennifer. I will remember Roger as quiet, his mischievous smile, his dry wit, his perfect homegrown tomatoes, and his love of friendship bread, birthday cakes and butter pecan ice cream. He will be greatly missed but memories, smiles, and stories will last forever. Roger, may you rest in peace. Barbara Baldwin

“ Jean and family,so sorry to hear of Roger passing. He was always kind to everybody and his family was very good to our family when we lived in the old house that stood just beyond where he builded his. Jean you and Roger was good to me before Mother passed .I will never forget your kindness and thoughtfulness to me. May God keep his arms around each one during the next dark days. Love each one,Barbara McDaniel

“ Mrs. Jean and family, I'm sending my sincere condolences over the loss of Mr. Roger. He was always such a kind man, soft spoken and full of wisdom. I appreciate the season of my life, while working at DuPont, that I was able to spend some time with him & listen to his life stories. May you all feel the peace and comfort that can only come from our Eternal Father. Love you all. ♡♡
