

William Wallace Holley, Sr.

May 31, 1932 - April 11, 2012

Garner, NC - William Wallace Holley, Sr., 79 passed away Wednesday, April 11, 2012 at the WakeMed Cary Hospital in Cary, North Carolina. He leaves behind his wife of 56 Years, Mary Ann Harris Holley; his borhter, Ernest Lee Holley, Jr. and his wife, Mary Frances Holley; his 4 children: Dianne Holley Mountain and her husband, Richard Thomas Mountain; William Wallace Holley, Jr., and his wife, Irene N. Holley; Clayton Harris Holley and his wife, Sharon Elizabeth Ray Holley; and Amy Lee Holley Hauk and her husband, Ronald Scott Hauk; 6 grandchildren; 4 great grandchildren; and many nieces and nephews. Born and reared in Savannah, GA, the son of Ernest Lee Holley Sr. and Ollie Lois Wallace Holley, Bill entered the Citadel upon high school graduation of Savannah High. Soon after, his unit of the Air National Guard was activated during the Korean War. Upon his return, he entered Georgia Tech, married his love Mary Ann Harris, and graduated with a degree in Civil Engineering. His occupation as a General Contractor and Construction Company Executive took him all over the world from Atlanta, GA; to Louisville, Ky; to Rapid City, SD; to Abilene, TX; to Dallas, TX; to Saudi Arabia; to Qatar; to Cary, NC. Bill and Mary Ann then retired and moved to Twin City, GA. There they embarked upon a decade-long renovation and restoration of an historic 1904 home. Recently, they returned to North Carolina and settled in Garner. Bill was an excellent dancer, loved to travel and enjoyed catching loved ones off-guard with his subtle and amazing sense of humor. His favorite way to pass the time was fishing and just about anything to do with the coastal waters and nature in general. He had great knowledge of many different topics and was a wonderful source of information. Bill had a passion for competition in politics and Georgia Tech sports.
