“ My husband and I want to express how sorry we are for the passing of your son Zach. Although we did not know Zach or your family, we too lost our daughter this past June. She was 18 as well and died in an accident doing something she loved too, hiking. We understand your grief and can only let you know that we are praying for your healing.##imported-begin##Karen and Barry Shaw##imported-end##

“ Shane and Martin,
You may not even remember me, I was Monica Whiddon when I baby sat Zach a couple of times for you. I was a friend of Michael's. I saw the obituary in the Valdosta paper and I am very saddened to learn about this.

As a mother of two young boys myself, my heart is very saddend.
Words can not heal your pain, only God and time will ease the pain.
You will be in my prayers.

Sincerely,

“ Shane, Brian & family,
we did not know Zach personally only through his good deeds and through Shane at the Co-op end of the celebration. Zach is someone that all young people should look up to and I am sure that he was a great mentor. He is the kind of young man that I hope my son will grow up to be one day. Our prayers and thoughts are with you through this most difficult time in your lives.

“ Dear Brian and Shane,

I cannot start to imagine what you are going through. I know that God has true meaning, however at times like this we can never possibly understand why this has to happen. Jeff and I have recently heard how great things were going for Zach. We know that God had restored his life and truly changed him. Although the space in your heart can never be replaced, we pray that you both can someday find peace in knowing where he is today. God needed him to do mission work, just not in the location that Zach had planned.
