“ I am so saddened by the loss of Zack. He was a great young man and a very good friend of my son Will Credille. I chatted with Zack on Facebook a couple of years ago and he shared his love for Jesus with me. I told him how proud I was of him and of what he had become. Everyone goes through struggles in life. God knows all of our heartaches and trials. I am lifting the Lively family up in prayer. You raised a great son.

“ Zack, I wish I were better with words and could express how truly sad I am. I know it's been a long time since we lasted chatted, but I would give anything to see or talk to you now. You had such a good heart and and warm soul. I think about you often and wish I had reached out to you. In fact just this week, when I was jamming to some Guns N' Roses on the radio, I was thinking of you. I love you Zack and I know God has a special angle with him now.

“ My sweet bubba, from the time I laid my eyes on you, you were my special young man. So very quiet but when you spoke it was with such great words of wisdom. I can't think of you without smiling and wishing to hear you say "I love you Aunt Kim" as you always told me when I saw you. You are pain free and nothing can cause you grief any longer my sweet bubba. You, Papa, Granny Peebles, Granny Lively & your Aunt Linda are soaring high today & always. Keep your wings spread and I'll see you again my angel! ❤️

“ My memories of Zack would fill a book as much as he filled my heart. I wasn't his real Mama, but it warmed my heart from the beginning that he loved me enough to call me Mama and that was our relationship. In my heart and in his, I was his Mama and we shared so many memories, some we laughed about, some we cried over, but we could talk for hours and mostly he wanted me to listen as he spoke of his Lord and Savior. I knew no one that knew the Bible as well as Zack and he wanted so much to share the message with everyone who would listen. His Pa was his hero and Zack was his Pa's Grandson, but more his true friend. He never failed to call him and have long talks that were so important to his Pa, since he has been bed-ridden for over two years. He always ended his calls to us with, "I love you," and today we say goodbye to Zack for awhile , but we'll carry him daily in our hearts and memories with so much love. "Zack walk slowly our boy for your Pa and Mama look forward to walking and talking to you again one day in our Heavenly home." We love you, Son.

“ God bless you, Zack. I wish I had better words. I just wish I could have been there & maybe you'd still be here. I'll miss you until the day I see you again in Heaven. I'm praying for everybody, and I pray that you can hear me. I love you, man. I know you're in a better place. I just have to keep reminding myself of that. I pray that you can hear me right now. I love you brother, - K.T.

“ Zack was a huge part of my high school life and I am SO thankful for those memories. He was an amazing person that loved his family and fishing. We also shared a love for music! Praying for your sweet family during this difficult time.
