“ Zeb and I were very close along with Scott Reynolds and Reggie Holland growing up in Franklin, NC. From 8th to 10th grade, we pretty much hung out together until I moved to Alabama. Really enjoyed those times. I think Zeb introduced me to rocketry (i.e., October Sky) when that was a big deal. We shot rockets all over Franklin. We even did a 4-H project with it. We were the first students at the new middle school at the time (8th grade). We played a lot of basketball and Zeb was our team manager at Franklin High School. We played tennis too if I recall. Zeb and I both attended the Methodist Church in Franklin.

Zeb had the first Mattel handheld electronic football game in our area. I bought one too. They were a big deal back then. When the new bowling alley was built in the late 1970s, we all got into bowling. Probably corny now, but I believe Scott, Zeb, Reggie, and I were on a Saturday morning bowling league. The bowling alley had a great arcade which was a big deal then. I remember when it must have snowed 18 inches in the late 70s and we all were out of school for a month. Zeb had an excellent sleigh from Sears, and we slid all over the place. Those cow pastures near my house turned into unbelievable slopes.

Zeb was very smart. He was an outstanding student, but didn't want to act like it. He was very low key as a student, but it was clear he was a top academic performer. He was very intelligent. I was not surprised when Zeb attended the University of Alabama to get his law degree. I had a chance in the early 1990s to visit with Zeb and his fine family in Tuscaloosa. I wish I had connected more. God Bless you Zeb and God Bless your family! Willy “ Zeb it has been forever since I have seen or talked to you. I still have fond memories of my youth and the good times when ever you came to our house to visit my brother. You two were like brothers yourselves and would enjoy picking on me and teasing me. It was some of the funniest times I ever had. I cannot believe you are gone. RIP and my prayers go out to the family. You will be missed.
